The Federal Employment Agency's International Placement Services (ZAV) is looking for you!

The International Placement Services (ZAV) is a special department of the Federal Employment Agency in cooperation with the EURES network. We offer foreign applicants free and independent advice on living and working in Germany, contacts to German employers and job placements. We provide you with customised consultancy services as well as many other offers in the German labour market.

The federal state of Baden-Württemberg, which is located in the south west of Germany, is one of the economically strongest and most competitive regions in Europe. In addition to many large international operating companies, there are also many middling-small businesses which act as an indispensable pillar of our economy. The labour market is stable and there is a high demand for skilled workers.

On the Swiss border, on the edge of the southern Black Forest, lies the small Black Forest village of Weizen. One of the oldest farmhouses in Weizen has over the years been converted into a cosy guesthouse with seventeen modern guestrooms, a rustic "Schwarzwaldstube" restaurant and adjoining rooms for up to 100 people.

We are looking for a:
