

Arbeitsmarktservice
Österreich

Description of Company

The employer is one of the largest solid timber processing companies in Europe and employs approximately 2,530 employees at twelve locations in Austria, Germany and Finland. The range of solid timber products includes lumber, profiled timber, single- and multiplies solid wood panels, glulam and CLT BBS. Waste timber as a production by-product is processed into biofuels and green electricity.

Job title

Electrician (m/f)

Job description

- Electrical maintenance, monitoring, troubleshooting, maintenance and optimization of our production facilities
- Installation and commissioning of electrical or electromechanical assemblies by means of circuit diagrams and technical drawings
- Error analysis & small program changes in the factory PLC solutions or training phase in PLC troubleshooting

Skills:

Education, work experience, language, certificate etc.

- Electrical training and ideally work experience in the industrial sector
- PLC knowledge in the S5 / S7 environment is an advantage (no requirement)
- Systematic, self-responsible & flexible working style
- Good basic knowledge of German (understanding of work and safety instructions)
- Willingness to relocate or return home every 4-8 weeks

Working hours and place of work

- Regular working time 38.5 - Permanent full time employment
- Tyrol and/or Salzburg AUSTRIA

Salary

- Market based salary in accordance with training and professional experience minimum gross pay EUR 2,000.00/month (14 times a year) plus shift perks/bonus

Other information

- Individual induction program, team-oriented environment, additional assurance, successful group of companies under full family ownership
- Individual support with accommodation
- German language course

How to apply?

Send CV, certificates and application, including details about desired working places, via email to Bernhard.pichler@ams.at cc to bproe@sepe.es indicating in the subject 'Oferta AUSTRIA AMS Electrician '