

Lifts Technician

Number of Posts: Three

Contract Type: Indefinite

Job description

- Basic liaising with clients on site;
- Preparation of lifts to be certified;
- Accompany engineer to certify lift (new or existing);
- Wiring, fault finding, installations, interpretations of electrical circuitry of lifts;
- Report writing on any faults found on lifts;

Requirements

- Knowledge of English or Maltese Language
- Willingness to work on construction sites with no fear of heights, closed spaces etc;
- Basic knowledge of technical design and understanding of circuit diagrams;
- Knowledge of mechanical technology;
- Candidates who would be willing to learn, undergo training and drive a car in Malta would eventually be given a company car with fully funded fuel.

Training provided

- Yes, employer will provide both onsite training by skilled workforce together with any courses that will be held locally from time to time.
- Employer is a main player boasting one of the longest list of clientele spanning around thirty years in the local vertical transportation industry and is actively promulgating the notion of a setup of a taskforce within the Malta Lifts Association for the organisation of direct courses that could be accredited by all the competent and relevant authorities.

Any assistance with accommodation/relocation

- Yes, employer will assist in both finding of accommodation and in incentivising prospective employees in the initial settling down period and is willing to pay 50% of accommodation expenses of first month

Any other benefits

Company will provide for successful employees, (but not necessarily restricted to):

- Uniforms
- Protective gear
- Mobile phone
- Company vehicle

Salary

12,000 – 17,000 euros (gross) annually depending on experience. There is overtime availability every week due to big workload at standard overtime rates of 1.5x normal hourly rates.

How to apply:

Job applications are to be sent to eures.recruitment.jobspplus@gov.mt with copy to eures.grupomixto@sepe.es (CV plus Covering letter are to be submitted in English, Ref. Malta – Lift Technician - 323685).

The interviews will be held via skype.

Closing date: 28-09-2017